

The Fox and the Grapes- Answers

One hot summer day a fox was walking through an orchard when he came to a bunch of grapes ripening on a vine that was hanging over a large branch. “This is just what I need to quench my thirst,” he said. He walked back a few steps and then ran towards the tree. He jumped as high as he could, but he missed the grapes. He tried again, but he still couldn’t reach the grapes. He tried again and again to get the grapes. They looked so sweet and delicious. Finally, he had to give up. He walked away with his nose in the air saying, “I am sure they are sour.”

It’s easy to despise what you cannot get.
